HAIL TO THE Y. M. C. A.

SONG

Composed by

Y.M.C.A.

J. E. Fisher

Harry Grabhorn Print Indianapolis

PUBLISHED BY
J. E. FISHER
NEWCASTLE, INDIANA

Hail to The Y. M. C. A.

Tempo di Valse.

Words and Music by J. E. FISHER.

f
1. All hon - or we say to the Y. M. C. A. For hon - or in -
2. When we en - tered the war they went to the fore And in can - ton - ments
3. At home and a - broad their good deeds we ap - plaud And ad - mire their
4. No slack - ers were they by night or by day They worked with a p deed is their due, Ev' - ry cause that is right They up - all o'er the land, The heart was made glad Of each ex - cel - lent plan, Of the friend - ly hut Whose pur - pose quite strong, And were in the fight To the

Copyright 1919, by J. E. Fisher, Newcastle, Ind.

hold with their might, And loy - al - ly cham - pi - on too.
brave sol - dier lad, By the touch of a kind - ly hand.
door was ne'er shut To the needs of a fel - low man.
end that right Should tri - um - phant be o - ver wrong.
Chorus.
Then hail, hail to the Y. M. C. A. And where ev - er our p f flag is un - furled; Let the Tri - an - gle too be plain - ly in 1 2
view, Speak-ing good cheer to the world. Then world.